“Trust yourself, you know more than you think you do” – Benjamin Spock

Dear Children,

You are going to appear for your Board Examinations, which is considered a milestone to cross over in your life.

Life is full of examinations of different sorts and people who face life with confidence and courage will succeed. Examinations are litmus tests of your understanding of the things you have been taught in the classes over the years.

Exams are stressful but they are not impossible. Put the work in and you will see the results. We all know the dreadful “Blank” feeling of walking into an exam hall.

But fear not, you will always know more than you think. If you’ve revised well, the information will be there and will come flooding back when you see the question paper in front of you.

Millions before you have faced and millions after you will face these Exams, your Parents included. The outcome of an exam will not define you and your intelligence at all.

Be focused, be determined, be hopeful. Give it your best shot. Just focus on the question paper in front of you. Give your pen the opportunity of a “free hit”.

On behalf of the SMC, Principal, Teachers, Staff & the entire Parent community of Indian School Ibri, I wish you all resounding success in your forthcoming examinations.

“When you want to succeed as bad as you want to breathe, then you’ll be successful.” Eric Thomas

With Regards
